This book was a labor of love
by my father, Algernon Aikin
Aspinwall, whose mother was Frances Main.
It is dedicated to his memory by his son Clarence Aikin Aspinwall.

...ously been collecting material for a genealogy of the descendants of Ezekiel Maine, of Stonington, Conn., and having up to the present time secured a large amount of data for the same, I have concluded to put what I now have into genealogical form, realizing that I can arrange the same better than any other person and realizing also that at my age, it is better to put things in order. This does not mean, however, that the genealogy is complete. I shall keep on collecting, and if my life is spared long enough, shall hope to add largely to the data now to hand.

[illegible]

It is a pleasure for us to copy and present to Historical Societies and Libraries, copies of the genealogy referred to by Mr. Aspinwall in his note, above. (The original copy [illegible] The Western Reserve Historical Society.)
The only changes from the original work are the changes made in later material by Mr. Aspinwall, and the addition of family No. 94, of which we have personal knowledge.
We feel that the descendants of Ezekiel Maine owe much to Mr. Algernon Aikin Aspinwall, No. 1902, and to his son Mr. Clarence Aikin Aspinwall, the former for the many years of labor and love he devoted in the compilation of this genealogical data, and the latter for making it available to us for copies to be made and for his permission to use it in the book we hope to publish, in the not too distant future.
We wish to express our appreciation and gratitude to the New England Historic and Genealogical Society, for the use of the material, they have(compiled by Mr. A. A. Aspinwall), and also to use our thanks and appreciation to Dr. Russell Anderson, and members of his staff of The Western Reserve Historical Society for their cooperation and assistance.
We shall continue the collecting of Maine-Main material, compiling the record down to the present time, and preparing it for publication.
We request anyone with Maine - Main data to get in touch with us so that we may include in the record as many descendants of Ezekiel Maine as possible.
It is a privilege to carry on this genealogy so capably compiled by the late Mr. Algernon Aikin Aspinwall and we will do our utmost to make it an accurate and true record.

The first person bearing the name of Maine, who has been found in the Colonies, in this country, is one John Maine or Mayne (as it is sometimes spelled in the records) who came from England to the Province (now the State) of Maine - He is said to have settled there about 1640, or earlier than about 1648. An account has been furnished me that he was born at Heatherleigh, Devonshire, England, in the year 1614, and that he married, in 1639, Elizabeth Laurie - As to the correctness of this I know nothing, but as to his age, it is probably correct, as in a deposition made by John Mayne, January 3, 1684, he says he is "70 years old or thereabouts". The same account says that his wife, Elizabeth Laurie was born in 1619 - This, however, is not borne out by the statement made by her in a deposition made February 16, 1684, when she says that she is "about 61 years old".

John Maine settled in what is now the County of York, Maine, on Casco Bay, on the "Foreside" or neck - This place was called at that time "Westgostuggoe", and is probably now North Yarmouth. He was driven out by the Indians and two of his sons-in-law killed by them - They burnt his house, and it appears he afterward lived at York - In 1687 he was living at Boston, Mass., and he died there March 27, 1699, as stated in the New England Historical Genealogical Magazine - In the report of the Record Commissioners of Boston, however, appears the death of John Mayn (probably the same person) under the date of March [illegible]94. In the same report appears among the Inhabitants of Boston, 1695, "Widow Main", which would apparently corroborate the latter date of death - The marriage at Boston also appears, on July 24, 1690, of John Mayn and Mary Peacock. I conclude therefore, that Elizabeth, wife of John Maine had died before this, and that the above is the record of a second marriage of John Maine.

As to the family of John Maine, I am not certain, but I think that he left nine children, for the reason that one John Arnold and wife of Lynn, Mass., in 1729, " sell one tenth of the right of the heirs of John Main, late of Casco Bay, deceased, as grandson of the said Main" and as the elder men in those days had a double portion, there were evidently nine children left as heirs. From the best information I have been able to obtain the children below were children of John Maine - It has been suggested that Ezekiel Maine of Scituate, Mass., and Stonington, Conn., was also a son of John Maine, one of his nine children, but I have failed to find any proof of this, and have found nothing to lead to such a belief.

As this work has to do only with the descendants of Daniel Maine of Stonington, Conn., no further account will be given of the descendants of John Maine or Mayne of Casco Bay, Maine.

Ezekiel Maine is first heard of in this country in the year 1661, at which time he was living at Scituate, Massachusetts, in the Plymouth Colony. From whence he came, or at which time, the compiler has been unable to ascertain. There has been no proof forthcoming that he was a son of John Maine of the preceding chapter, although it is possible that such was the case.

The first mention of him in the records is the following under date of March 9, 1660/1 :-
"Ezekiel Maye for accompanying and countenancing of the said parties in their extravagant course for the accomplishing of their irregular purpose", was fined twenty shillings. This referred to what was called the disorderly conduct of Robert Whitcomb and Mary Cudworth " in coming together without consent of parents and lawful marriage". As Ezekiel Maine aided these parties in their elopement, it is to be presumed at this time he was a young man and unmarried.

Under date of October 20, 1668, the Plymouth Colony Records give the following:
"It was at the same time ordered likewise by the Council of War in reference unto Ezekiel Mayne of Scituate, that whereas there doth appear a willingness in the Military Company of Scituate, that in regard that he hath but one eye, it is difficult and in some respects dangerous for him to be in arms as others, that he be likewise discharged from bearing arms and training as formerly".

Soon after he removed to Stonington, Ct., for on February 2, 1668/9, when a census of the inhabitants of that town was taken, Ezekiel Maine is enumerated as one of the forty three heads of families. A number of people from Scituate settled at Stonington about this time. The fortunes of this time were presumably at a low ebb, for the Plymouth Colony Records show under date of June 3, 1675, in the settlement of an estate there that among the accounts as "doubtful" is one of Ezekiel Main, to the amount of two pounds, four shillings and five pence. Let us hope that he subsequently liquidated this debt.

In 1672 Ezekiel Maine received a grant of land from the town of Stonington. He subsequently purchased other land, and in 1680, he received another grant from the town. All of this land adjoined, and was located in that part of Stonington which is now North Stonington, and was bounded nearly all the way by the Shunnock river on the South and on the North by the land of Joshua Holmes.

Ezekiel Maine was a farmer, and does not appear to have been conspicuous in the affairs of the town, as his name is seldom mentioned in the records. He was admitted to the Church at Stonington, September [illegible], 1711. In 1697 he was a Deputy to the General Court at Hartford. He died at Stonington, June 19, 1714.

In his Will, dated May 5, 1711, which was admitted to probate July 13, 1714, he gives, " to Mary my dearly beloved wife the one third part of all my moveable estate. . . . To my two daughters Hannah Main and Phebe Hingsbury one third of moveables to be equally divided between them.

No record of any marriage appears at Stonington, she was presumably his only wife and the mother of his children, and he presumably married her prior to his removal from Situate to Stonington. There is no record of his marriage at Scituate.

The descendants of Ezekiel Maine are not in accord in their spelling of the name, some using and some omitting the final "e" - The name was originally "Maine", and so that the spelling may be uniform in this work, the compiler will use this form throughout - The children given below are all that have been disclosed on the records at Stonington, and if there were others, they undoubtedly died young, as evidenced by the Will of Ezekiel Maine.

He married at Stonington, October 11, 1699, Mrs. Ruth Brown a widow, whose maiden name has failed to handed down with those of her first husband. When the First Church was formed in the new North Stonington, Jeremiah Maine and his wife both were among the first members. In his Will dated Febr uary 24, 1726, Jeremiah names his three youngest sons, Nathaniel, John and Peleg; his three eldest daughters not named, he names his youngest daughter, Hepzibah and names her wife, Ruth as sole executor. He also gives five shillings to Ruth, wife of John Butler. She was Ruth Brown, daughter of his wife by her first marriage.

Jonas 4, son of Thomas 3, and Ann (Brown) Maine, was born at North Stonington, Conn., February 7, 1735; died there January 24, 1804. He served as Ensign in Capt. Dungerford's Co., Conn., Militia in the Revolutionary War 1780-1781. He married, first at Westerly, R.I., Patience, daughter of Reuben and Patience (Hathaway) Peckham. She was born at Dartmouth, Mass., February 15, 1737; died July 23, 1786. He married, second, April 14, 1760, Content Brosley, at Stonington, Conn.; she died August, 1825, aged 89 years.
The Compiler of this Genealogy saw the family Bible of Jonas Maine in 1900, then in possession of his great grandson, Thomas W. Wheeler, of North Stonington, Conn., Mrs. Wheeler told him that her husband's grandmother, Patience (Maine) Peckham, (who lived to be 97 years of age) told her that her father Jonas Maine kept this Bible at the mill in Millville, (North Stonington) and was a constant reader of it when there was no grist to grind. He was a miller and kept the mill there. Jonas, married, first, June 3, 1756.

Jeremiah 1, son of Jeremiah 2, and Abigail (Worden) Maine, was born at Stonington, Ct., April 12, 1732. Removed to Stephentown, Rensselaer, Co., N. Y., prior to 1790. He married, February 22, 1758, Bathsheba Vose.

The compiler has been unable to get a correct account of his family. He had other children than those named below, a descendant says there were several daughters. In addition the U. S. Census of 1790 shows that he had in his family, one son under 16, and as the three sons named below were all over 16 in 1790, there must have been another son. Continued on page 15.

Thurston Ancestry

Edward 1, Thurston [illegible] in Rhode Island prior to 1647; died at Newport, R. I., March 1, 1707, aged 90. Married June 1647, Elizabeth, dau. of Adam Mott. She died September 2, 1691, aged 67.

Jonathan 2, Thurston, born Newport, January 4, 1659; died Little Compton, R. I., 1740, married 1678, Sarah [illegible].

Edward 3, Thurston, born Little Compton, R. I., October 18, 1678; died 1767. Married December 19, 1706, Susanna, daughter of George and Mary Pearce.

George 4, Thurston, born at Little Compton, R. I., November 4, 1[illegible]. Removed to Hopkinton, R. I., married December 11, 1728, Hannah [illegible].

Edward 5, Thurston married Thankful Maine.

Nathan 4, son of Jeremiah and Thankful (Brown) Maine, he married date not ascertained, Rensselaer York. Removed to Stephentown, N. Y. and later to Petersburg, Rensselaer County, N. Y. He had 10 children by his wife Deborah, then married, second Rebecca Chapin, by whom he had eight children. He moved to Crawford County, Pa., at the U. S. Census of 1850, living at Bloomfield, that County. His age given on Census as 94 years old, which would make his birth about 1756, but descendants claims, that he was born 1700, if age given by census is correct, he was 85 at the time of birth of his youngest child. His wife Rebecca, living 1850, then 88. Later, his gravestone says he died May 10, 1855, age 96 years, but this must be a mistake for it would only make him 29 at the time of the birth of his son Nathan.

John 4, son of John 3, and Sarah (Morgan) Maine, was born February 12 1741. Lived at Kent, Conn. He married at New Milford, Conn., May 14, 1761, Hannah Prindle. The records of New Milford show that Katherine Taylor of that place deeded twelve acres of land "for the love and good will that I have unto my well beloved daughter Hannah Main". From this it appears that either Hannah Prindle was a widow whom he married John Maine or that her mother had married again to a Taylor.
John Maine probably died prior to 1790, as the U. S. census report of that year shows, Hannah Main as the head of a family at Kent. The children shown below are from the records at Kent, Conn., but the compiler has no account of their descendants. There was a Judith Main married at Kent, Conn., to James Fuller, the latter having been born [illegible] and it is possible that Judith was a daughter of this John or one of his brother Caleb or Jonathan.

Jonathan 4, son of John 3, and Sarah (Morgan) Maine, was born February 12, 1743, at Stonington, Conn. He served in the Revolutionary War. Land was deeded to him at Kent, Conn., by his father in 1778. He lived there until 1809, when he removed to Port Byron, Cayuga County, N. Y. He married at Kent, Conn., on August 30, 1773, as shown by the records there. Sarah Hull. He may have had another marriage, as one of his grandsons thinks his grandmother's name was not Sarah - The only Sarah shown on the records at Kent, is the daughter, Lydia, but the U. S. Census of 1790 shows that he was then living at Kent and that his family then consisted of four males under 16, and five females (probably his wife and four daughters). A descendant gives the names of the children as below (omitting Lydia) and as the dates of birth of two of them are subsequent to 1790, there must have been one son and daughter, not given in this list, who perhaps died young. Jonathan's death is given by a descendant as having been at Hartland, Conn., [illegible] he lived there for a time before moving to Port Byron,

The child given below is the only one shown on the Kent records. The U. S. Census of 1790, shows him living at Kent, with wife, one male over 16, two males under 16, and three females, probably wife and daughters. At the census of 1800, it shows his widow with no family.

Sebbeus 6, son of Joshua 4, and Patience (Peckham) Maine, was born at North Stonington, Ct., March 23, 1757. He removed to New York state and about 1780 to the State of Virginia, where he died 1809 at St. Clair Bottom, Smyth County. He married, 1780 or 1781, Hannah Cole. She born in 1763, after the death of Sebbeus Maine, his widow with all of her children except, two daughters removed to Delaware County, Ohio, where she died in 1826. The descendants of Sebbeus call the names Sabeers, a corruption no doubt arising from the sound in pronunciation.

Asa 5, son of Asa 4, and ____Maine, was living North Stonington, Conn., At the Census of 1790, at which time his family consisted of himself and two females. No further account has been received and he evidently removed from North Stonington to Cortland Co., N. Y. where his father had settled. The U. S. Census of 1850 in Virgil, Cortland, shows Asa Maine 58, no doubt a son of Asa, he will be so recorded here in the absence of any other proof, a brother of this Asa, married Susan Palmer, who a relative says was a daughter of a widow Mary Palmer, who married Asa Maine, as his second wife - This shows that Asa Maine, married, second, a Mrs. Mary Palmer no doubt there were other children. Sebbeus 6, son of Sebbeus 5, and [illegible] Maine, was probably born in Putnam Co., N. Y. This name is an unusual one and found only in the descendants of James 4, (No. 44). It has been corrupted into Sabeers and Syberius. A Syberius Maine was living in the early nineteenth century in Greene Co., Pa., within a few miles of the line of Wetzel Co., Virginia, now West Virginia. A grandson states that he came from New York or Connecticut and it would seem that he must be Sebbeus (No. 343), who is otherwise unaccounted for, with this explanation. He will be recorded. He married before going to Pennsylvania, Mary Ann Keenon. The grandson referred to gives the names of the following sons there may have been others.

We are deeply indebted to Clarence Aikin Aspinwall for these records so capably compiled by his father, the late Algernon Aikin Aspinwall, (No. 1902). All of the above data in this book is from the original work of Mr. Aspinwall. The only material contained herein, not his is the brief supplement in the back and so specified.
All of us interested in Haine or Main ancestry owe both Algernon Aikin Aspinwall and Clarence Aikin Aspinwall a debt of gratitude. We hope by placing copies in libraries for everyone to have access to, we will be showing in a small way our appreciation.
